This petition coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru. S.P. Selvamani, Advocate for petitioner and of Thiru.C.Chinnathambi, Public Prosecutor for state and upon hearing both sides and upon perusing the petition and other relevant records, this court delivered the following;

ORDER

The petitioner/accused has filed a petition U/s. 483 BNSS for seeking bail to the petitioner through E-filing.

The learned petitioner counsel has contended that the respondent police was registered a case against the petitioner in Crime No. 56/2026, U/s. 21(1), 21(2) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act 1957 r/w. Sec.303(2) of BNS Act 2023 on 25.05.2026. The Petitioner/ accused was remanded in to judicial custody on 25.05.2026. The alleged date of occurrence on 25.05.2026. The petitioner is no way connected with the offence and a false case has been foisted on him. He is ready to abide any conditions imposed by this court. Hence, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application. If the accused will be released on bail he would be committed the same offence again.

This court perused the rival submissions of both side. The respondent police was registered a FIR against the petitioner in Crime No. 56/2026, U/s. 21(1), 21(2) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act 1957 r/w. Sec.303(2) of BNS Act 2023 on 25.05.2026. The Petitioner/ accused was remanded in to judicial custody on 25.05.2026. It is submitted by the learned Public Prosecutor that the petitioner have illegally transported of ¼ unit river sand in a bullock cart. The case property was said to have been recovered from the petitioner. This petitioner already filed a bail application before this court in Cr.M.P.No.893/2026 and the same was dismissed on 02.06.2026. However the Petitioner/ accused was remanded in judicial custody from 25.05.2026 for the past 12 days. Hence, on considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the incarceration period of the petitioner this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with the following conditions;

1. That the Petitioner is directed to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- along with two sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the District Munsif – cum - Judicial Magistrate, Sendurai.
2. That the Petitioner/Accused shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station, daily at 10.00 A.M for 3 weeks.
3. That the petitioner/accused shall not abscond during investigation or trial.

5. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the bail is granted to him shall stand cancelled under due process of law and the concerned Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560).

6. If the petitioner/accused absconds, the respondent police shall register a case U/s. 269 Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023.
