ORDER

The petitioner/accused have filed a petition U/s. 483 BNSS for seeking bail to the petitioner through E-filing.

The learned petitioner counsel has contended that the respondent police was registered a case against the petitioner in Crime No. 69/2026, U/s. 21(1), 21(2) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act 1957 r/w.

Sec.303(2) of BNS Act 2023 on 26.06.2026. The Petitioner/ accused was remanded in to judicial custody on 26.06.2026. The alleged date of occurrence on 26.06.2026. The petitioner is no way connected with the offence and a false case has been foisted on him. He is ready to abide any conditions imposed by this court. Hence, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

The respondent police has stated that the petitioner and accused have illegally transported of ¼ unit river sand in a Tata Ace . The case property was recovered from the accused. Already two previous cases are pending against the petitioner in the same kind of offence . If the accused will be released on bail , he would be committed the same offence again.

This court perused the rival submissions of both side. The respondent police was registered a FIR against the petitioner in Crime No. 69/2026, U/s. 21(1), 21(2) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act 1957 r/w. Sec.303(2) of BNS Act 2023 on 26.06.2026. The Petitioners/ accused were remanded in to judicial custody on 26.06.2026. It is submitted by the respondent police , that the petitioner and accused have illegally transported of ¼ unit river sand in a Tata Ace . The case property was said to have been recovered from the petitioner.

In this case the co-accused was enlarged on bail by this court. Earlier bail application was dismissed by this court in Cr.M.P.No.1179/2026, dated 01.07.2026. However the Petitioner/ accused was remanded to judicial custody from 26.06.2026 for the past 13 days. Considering the above facts and circumstances and nature of offence, this Court is inclined to impose a specific condition that the petitioner shall deposit a sum of Rs. 5,000/- to the District Mines Foundation Trust, Ariyalur District. Hence, on considering the incarceration period of the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with the following conditions;
