... Petitioners/Accused

/Vs/

The State represented by the Inspector of Police,
Udayarpalayam Police Station, in Crime No. 225/2026.

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition was coming up today before me for final hearing in the presence of Thiru. R. Manimaran, Advocate for the petitioners and the Inspector of Police, Kuvagam represented as per the order of the Superintendent of Police, Ariyalur in C.No.366/SB/X/ALR/2026, dated: 02.07.2026 appeared for state and upon hearing both side arguments and perusing the petition and other relevant records, this Court is delivered the following;

ORDER

The petitioners have filed a petition u/s. 482 BNSS through E-filing for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

2. The respondent police has registered a case against the petitioners for the alleged offence u/s. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 126(2), 109, 351(2) of BNS Act 2023 on 28.06.2026 and the alleged occurrence was happened on 26.06.2026. The learned counsel for the petitioners have contended that the petitioners are no way connected with the occurrence and a false case has been foisted on them. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail.

3. The respondent police has filed an objection stating that the petitioners abused with filthy words and the 1st petitioner was attacked the complainant with beer bottle on his head and the 2nd petitioner was attacked the complainant with wooden log on his chin and threatened to kill him . The victim was sustained grievous injury and he was admitted at hospital. Now the injured has been discharged from hospital. This case in counter case was registered against the complainant in Crime No. 224/2026.

4. This Court perused the rival submissions of both side. The respondent police has registered a FIR against the petitioners in Crime No.225/2026, u/s. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 126(2), 109, 351(2) of BNS Act 2023 on 28.06.2026 . It is submitted written reply by the respondent police that that the petitioners abused with filthy words and the 1st petitioner was attacked the complainant with beer bottle on his head and the 2nd petitioner was attacked the complainant with wooden log on his chin and threatened to kill him . The victim was sustained grievous injury and he was admitted at hospital. Now the injured has been discharged from hospital. The respondent police has registered this case in counter case against the complainant in Crime No.224/2026 . Considering the facts that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and considering the stage of investigation, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with following conditions;

- i. That the petitioners/accused shall be released on bail in the event of their arrest or their surrender or appearance on their executing a bond for sum of Rs.25,000/- along with two sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Jayankondam.
- ii. That the petitioners/accused shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station, daily at 10.00 A.M for 3 weeks.

- iii. That the petitioners/Accused shall surrender on or before 04.08.2026 failing which the anticipatory bail granted to them shall stand cancelled under due process of law.
- iv. That the petitioners/accused shall not abscond during investigation or trial.
- v. The petitioners/accused shall not tamper with evidence or witnesses during investigation or trial.
- vi. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the concerned Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560).
- vii. If the petitioners/accused absconds, the respondent police shall register a case U/s. 269 Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023.
