The petitioners have filed this petition u/s. 482 BNSS through E-filing for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

The learned counsel for the petitioners has contended that the respondent police has registered a case against the petitioners in Crime No.217/2026 for the offence u/s. 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 r/w. sec. 303(2) of BNS Act, 2023 r/w. sec. 194(1) of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. The alleged date of occurrence was on 14.07.2026. The FIR was registered on 14.07.2026. The petitioners are no way connected with the occurrence and a false case have been foisted on them. The petitioners/accused were got a proper permit to carry a lake sand and this FIR was filed against this petitioners/accused without proper inspection by the government engineer, this petitioners / accused was not done any manner against the permit. Some tractors got stuck in the lake mud, so that the petitioners/accused was released that tractors by some other tractors and JCB. The offences which is mentioned in the FIR are punishable only up to 7 years. Hence this arrest of this accused is not at all necessary for the above said crime. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail.

3. The learned Public Prosecutor has contended that the petitioners have illegally transported the river sand in a vehicle without permit. If the accused will be released on bail, they would be committed the same offence again.

4. In this petition, on considering both side contentions and available material records, on the complaint give by the VAO, a case was registered against the petitioners in Crime No.217/2026 for the offence u/s. 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 r/w. sec. 303(2) of BNS Act, 2023 r/w. sec. 194(1) of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988. As per the prosecution case, the accused have obtained permit to transport the sand in the tractors bearing registration No. TN 61 U 1756, TN 61 AB 5895, TN 61 J 7369. Apart from the vehicles, some other vehicles were also used to transport the sand and the accused persons took large amount of sand by violating the condition imposed in the proceedings of Thasildhar. The alleged date of occurrence was on 14.07.2026. The investigation in this case is primary stage. Considering the gravity of offence and considering the initial stage of investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant Anticipatory bail to the petitioners and accordingly this bail petition is dismissed.
