... Petitioner/Accused

/ Vs. /

State of Tamilnadu, Represented by
The Sub-Inspector of Police,
Pollachi Town East Police Station.
(Cr. No. 76/2026)

... Respondent/Complainant

Offence : u/s. 118(1), 296(b), 351(3) BNS.

Bail Petition filed u/s. 480 BNS Act., filed by the petitioner to grant bail

This petition filed by one Mr.T.Ashok, Learned Counsel for the petitioner came up before this court. The respondent police filed objections. Upon perusing the entire records, contentions of both parties and having stood over for consideration till tis date, this Court passed the following:

ORDER

1. THE CASE OF THE PETITIONERS AS FOLLOWS:-

The petitioner had preferred the present petition praying for enlargement of bail as he is in judicial custody for the past 7 days in Cr.No.76/2026, pending on the file of respondent police. It is submitted by the petitioner that he is innocent and did not commit any offences as alleged by the police. A false case is foisted against him for statistical purpose. By pointing out a period of 7 days of incarceration in judicial custody, the petitioner had prayed for enlargement of bail.

2. THE OBJECTIONS RAISED BY THE POLICE:-

The respondent police submitted a reply and objected to claim of bail by the petitioner herein. Further, if released, there are chances that the petitioner may indulge in committing similar offences in future. Thereby, prayed for the dismissal of the bail petition.

3. POINT TO BE DETERMINED:-

Whether the petitioner is entitled to be enlarged on bail u/s.480 BNSS Act, or not? is the point to be determined.

4. DISCUSSION:-

On perusal of records reveal that the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant, and beating with stone and there by causing blood injury in his face and criminally intimidated as he would kill him. The petitioner is in the prison for the past 7 days. On perusal of records also reveal that the police would have completed substantial portion of the investigation. It is reported that the victim is discharged from the hospital. It was submitted the Learnd Counsel for petitioner that the petitioner have permanent residence of the above mentined addresses and would appear before this court, as and when directed. Considering the nature of offence, period of incarceration and stage of investigation this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. RESULT:-

In the result, this petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail with stringent conditions:-

- (i). To execute a personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-, along with two sureties for the like sum each;
- (ii). The petitioner is directed to appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 a.m, until further orders;

(iii). The petitioner shall co-operate with the investigation, as and when required by the respondent police;

(iv). The petitioner is strictly directed not to involve in any of such offences and tampering of witnesses.

If the petitioner fail to adhere the conditions (ii), (iii) & (iv), the IO can approach this Court for necessary orders.

The order was dictated by me typed directly by typist in computer. Verified and pronounced by me in the Open Court on this the 06th day of March 2026
