Cr.No.90/2026 U/s.118(1), 296(b), 303(2), 351(3) BNS

.....Respondent/Complainant

This petition came before me in the presence of Thiru.P.V.Prakash, B.A., B.L., and Tmt.K.Kavitha,M.A., B.L., Learned Counsels for the petitioners/accused and Tmt.K.Jayanthi, M.B.A., B.L., Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor for the State and after hearing both sides, this court delivered the following :

ORDER

1. This Petition has been filed u/s.480 of BNSS Act 2023 seeking bail for the petitioners/accused.
2. Heard the Learned Counsel for the petitioners/accused and the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor and perused the reply given by the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor and the respondent police.
3. The Learned Counsel for the petitioners/accused has submitted that the petitioners/accused were remanded on 02.03.2026 and they are under judicial custody for the past 9 days and that the petitioners/accused are innocent and has not committed any offence and they have been falsely implicated in this case and the petitioners are ready to obey any conditions imposed by the court if they are released on bail.
4. On the other hand, the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor that the Investigation is not yet completed and the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant by using filthy language, assaulted him and threatened him with dire consequences and if the petitioners/accused are enlarged on bail, they will do the same offence again and they will tamper the witnesses and hamper the evidence and may abscond and will not appear before this court and hence, strongly objected to release the petitioners/accused on bail.

5. On perusal of the records, it reveals that the petitioners/accused were remanded to judicial custody on 02.03.2026 and they are in judicial custody for the past 9 days. Considering the facts and circumstances and the period of incarceration and no previous antecedents against the accused and the injured discharged from the hospital, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners/accused subject to the following conditions.

(i). This petition is allowed and the petitioners/accused shall be released on bail, on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- each (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum and on further conditions that the petitioners/accused shall report before the respondent police daily at 6.00 P.M. for a period of 30 days from the next day of their release.

(ii). The petitioners shall not tamper with evidence of witnesses either during investigation or trial.

(iii). The petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

6. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, this Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions has been imposed against the petitioners enlarged on bail by this Court as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji – Vs – State of Kerala (2005) AIR SCW 5560).
7. If the petitioners thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR will be registered under Section 269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in open Court this the 10th day of March 2026.
