Cr.No.39/2026

... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming for hearing before me on this day in the presence of Thiru.M.Balakrishnan, Advocate for the Petitioners/Accused and of Public Prosecutor for the Respondent and this Court made the following

ORDER

This petition is filed U/s.483 of BNSS for seeking bail.

Prosecution case is that the FIR was registered as against the Petitioners/Accused for the alleged offences punishable U/Ss.123 and 275 of BNS, r/w.24(1) of COTPA Act 2003 for the alleged occurrence on 20.05.2026 and the Petitioners/Accused were arrested and remanded on 21.05.2026.

The Learned Counsel for the Petitioners/Accused has contended that the Respondent Police has registered an FIR as against the Petitioners/Accused and they have been falsely implicated in this case and they have not committed any offence as alleged in FIR. He further stated that they are innocent and no way connected with the offence. No previous case is pending against them. The 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 is affected by Uterus problem and also heart problem. Now she is taking treatment at Government Hospital. She daily go to hospital and prison, it is very difficult to her. She wants to take further treatment at Chennai. So bail granted to her on medical grounds. Hence, prays to allow the petition.

At the time of enquiry he not press the petition against 1st and 3rd Petitioner/Accused-A2 and A4.

The Petitioners/Accused are in judicial custody for the past 12 days.

The Learned Public Prosecutor has contended that the Petitioners/Accused are in judicial custody for 12 days. As per FIR, totally 4 accused involved in this case. They are totally in possession of 10 bags of hans and cool lip and its total value is Rs.3,56,220/-. Hence, he strongly objected to release the Petitioners/Accused on bail. However, admitted that the 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 affected by heart problem as well as uterus problem.

Heard both sides.

Considering the representations made by both sides, considering the fact and circumstances of the case and also considering that the 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 affected by heart problem and uterus problem, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 only on medical grounds with the following conditions:-

The 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 is ordered to be released on bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Cuddalore and on further conditions that the 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 shall appear before the SHO, Respondent Police Station daily at 10.30 A.M. for 30 days and thereafter on every 1st day of English Calendar month till charge sheet filed after treatment. Further, conditions that

(i) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety affidavit and concerned Court may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity.

(ii) The Respondent Police is directed to secure the copy of Ration card, Aadhar Card and Phone number of the accused and his house mates to secure the presence of the accused.

(iii) The 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 shall not abscond and tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(iv) The 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 should co-operate with the investigation and trial proceedings without gaining any time, otherwise the bail bond would stand automatically canceled.

(v) 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 shall provide all mobile numbers to the IO concerned which shall be kept in working condition at all times and shall not switch off or change the mobile number without prior intimation to the Investigation Officer concerned. The Mobile location be kept on at all times.

(vi) the 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

(vii) On breach of any conditions, this court is entitled to take action as per the Judgment of the Supreme Court of India in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala, AIR 2005 SCR 5560. If the petitioner absconds a fresh FIR would be registered U/s.269 of BNS.

Accordingly, the petition is allowed with regard to 2nd Petitioner/Accused-A3 and the petition is dismissed as not pressed against the 1st and 3rd Petitioner/Accused-A2 and A4.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 1st day of June 2026
