...Petitioner/
Owner of the Property

.. Vs ..

SHO. Cuddalore CCD-II P.S.,
Cr.No.91 / 2025.

...Respondent/Complainant

This Petition is filed U/s.497 BNSS and coming before me for final hearing on today in the presence of Mr.V.Prakash, B.A., L.L.B., Learned Advocate for the Petitioner / owner of the property and APP Grade-II for the Respondent / Complainant and on perusal of the Petition and other connected records and have been stood over for consideration till this day this Court made the following.

ORDER

The case of the petitioner is that she and her husband were subjected to online fraud to the tune of Rs.5,69,922/-. The petitioner further submitted that she preferred a complaint to the Cyber Crime Police and based on the said complaint the accused was arrested and remanded to Judicial custody. During the period of Judicial custody the accused have deposited the said money and have filed an affidavit stating that he has no objections to return the money to the petitioner. As such the petitioner is in need of the money and happiness prayed to release the money so deposited by the accused before this court.

The police filed no objections. Heard the counsel for the petitioner. On perusal of records the accused was alleged to have cheated the petitioner. The accused was remanded to Judicial custody on 15.12.2026. On 18.12.2025 the Mother-in-law of the accused and his wife voluntarily prayed before this court and deposited the total amount of Rs.5,69,922/- before this Court and also filed an affidavit stating that she or the accused or anybody else would not rise any objections for returning the amount deposited to the defacto complainant and the same may be given to the petitioner / Defacto complainant. The said money was deposited by one Parimala vide orders in CrI.M.P.No.11914 / 2025, Dated: 18.12.2025. The said money has been kept in the CCD amount of this Court.

Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and also further considering the fact that the case has been disposed by this Court and also considering the fact that the accused did not seek for any claim on the amount so deposited, this court finds that the Petitioner / Defacto complainant is entitled for the amount of Rs.5,69,922/- deposited before this court kept in CCD account. Accordingly, it is ordered that the amount shall be returned to the defacto complainant / petitioner.

Dictated by me, typed by the Steno-typist mistakes corrected and pronounced by me in open Court on 10th day of April 2026.
