State Represented by,
Sub-Inspector of Police,
Nellikuppam P.S.,
Crime No.81/2026.

.....Respondent/ Complainant

This petition is filed on 23.03.2026 by the petitioner, pending before this court, upon hearing the counsel for petitioner named Thiru.Mu.Arivudainambi @ Gnanasekaran B.A., B.L., Advocate and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for state and after perusing the records, this court delivers the following,

ORDER

2. The Petitioner/Accused has filed bail application U/s.480 BNSS for the alleged offences U/s.221, 303(2), 324(3) BNS. The Learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner/Accused would contended that the Petitioner/Accused is no way connected for the above said alleged offence and if the Petitioner/Accused is released on bail, he is ready to furnish substantial sureties.

3. The learned Assistant Public Prosecutor strongly objected stating that investigation is pending. If the petitioner is released on bail he will tamper the witnesses and do same kind of offence again and again and the Investigation officer strongly placed their objection stating that the Petitioner/ Accused is released on bail he will abscond and tamper the witness and commit similar offence.

4. On perusal of records, this Court finds that the petitioner/ accused is already in judicial custody for the past 10 days. Considering the period of judicial custody and considering the nature of accusation against the petitioner, this Court is of the opinion that further detention is not necessary as critical stage of investigation would have been completed. Hence, this Court finds justification to release the petitioner in the interest of justice.

5. Hence this petition is allowed with the following conditions,

1. The petitioner/accused shall execute bond for Rs.10,000/-
2. The petitioner/accused shall execute two sureties each for Rs.10,000/-
3. The petitioner shall appear and sign before this court daily at 10.00 a.m. for 30 days.
4. The petitioner/ accused Shall not commit any offences, shall not tamper witnesses and shall Co-operate with the investigation of the police.
5. The petitioner/accused shall appear before this court on court summons for the purpose of trial in this case. If failure by the petitioner section 269 of BNS will be invoked, besides cancellation of bail.

6. In case of Breach of any of the condition, the bail granted to the petitioners automatically cancelled as per the dictum of the Honorable Supreme Court of India in P. K. Shaji @ Thammanam Shaji Vs State of Kerala, CDJ 2005 SC 848.

Dictated to the stenographer, typed by her and corrected by me and pronounced in the open court on this 27th day of March 2026.
