State of Tamilnadu,
Rep. by Inspector of Police,
Thirukalukundram Police Station
Cr. No.62 of 2026 (*)
U/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS - 2023.

.. Respondent/Complainant

This petition for anticipatory bail coming on this day for hearing before me, M/s.M.Prabakaran, the learned counsel appearing for petitioners/accused and M/s.R.Thirumurugan, the learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent/complainant, upon hearing the arguments and upon perusal of case records, this Court made the following:

ORDER

This petition is filed U/s.482 of B.N.S.S. to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

2. The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of respondent police for the alleged offences U/s. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS - 2023 in connection with the Cr. No.62 of 2026 (*) of respondent Police Station.

3. Notice given to the Public Prosecutor for the State and reply received. Heard both sides and perused the records.

*(* Amended as per order in memo dated 06.04.2026.*

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that, the petitioners are innocent persons, they are no way connected with the said offence; injured was discharged from the hospital; the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed upon them and they are ready to offer substantial sureties before the court and praying to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. The learned Public Prosecutor, on the other hand, would submit that due to land dispute, these petitioners picked up a quarrel, uttered abusive words towards the defacto complainant, assaulted with wooden logs, thereby caused injuries and also threatened them with dire consequences and prays for the dismissal of the petition. However, he fairly admits that the injured was discharged from the hospital

6. Taking into consideration of the nature of allegations levelled against the petitioners, injured discharged from the hospital; the petitioners are seemed to be the first offenders, there is no previous case pending against them; they have permanent residence within the jurisdiction of the respondent police station, therefore, there is no possibility of flee from justice and also considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. In the result, this petition is allowed; The petitioners, in the event of arrest or on their surrender before the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thirukalukundram within 15 days from today, are ordered to be released on bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thirukalukundram, with further condition that,

1. The sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression (LTI) in the surety bond and the sureties shall produce any one of identity proof before the learned Magistrate to ensure their identity.
2. The petitioners/accused are further directed to report before the respondent police station daily at 10.30 A.M. for a period of 15 days;
3. The petitioners should comply with the conditions contemplated U/s.482 (2) (i), (ii) and (iii) B.N.S.S.;
4. The petitioners/accused shall not tamper with the evidences or hamper the investigation in any manner;
5. If there is any breach of conditions, the Investigation Officer shall report to the learned Magistrate and the learned Magistrate shall take appropriate action as if the conditions have been imposed by the Magistrate himself/herself in accordance with the decision AIR 2006 S.C. 100 – P.K. Shaji vs State of Kerala.

Pronounced by me in open court, on this the 06th day of April 2026.

Principal District and Sessions Judge,
Chengalpattu.

To
The District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thirukalukundram.
