Cr. No.244 of 2026

.. Respondent/Complainant

U/s.296(b), 126(2), 118(1), 109, 351(3) of BNS, 2023

This petition for bail coming on this day for hearing before me, M/s.S.Chockalingam, the learned counsel is appearing for the petitioner/accused and of M/s.V.Krishnamoorthy, the learned Public Prosecutor is appearing for the respondent/complainant, upon hearing both sides and upon perusal of case records, this Court made the following

O R D E R

This petition is filed U/s.483 of BNSS 2023, praying to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

2. The petitioner/accused is facing charges for the alleged offences U/s.296(b), 126(2), 118(1), 109, 351(3) of BNS, 2023.

3. Notice given to the Public Prosecutor for the State and reply received. Heard both sides; records perused.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner; he was arrested and remanded on 10.07.2026 and he is under judicial custody for the past 18 days; the injured person has been discharged from the hospital; the co-accused has been granted bail by this court in CrI.M.P. No.2251 of 2026; moreover, the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed upon him and he is ready to offer substantial sureties before the court, thereby praying to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

5. The learned Public Prosecutor, on the other hand, would submit that due to prior enmity, on 27.06.2026 at night hours, while the defacto complainant consuming liquors, the accused persons came there, abused him with filthy words, assaulted him with knife and caused injuries, threatened him with dire consequences and prays for the dismissal of the petition. He would further admit that the injured person has been discharged from hospital.

6. Cursory perusal of records would go to show that the occurrence has been taken place on 27.06.2026 and the petitioner/accused is in custody from 10.07.2026. Total period of custody exceeds 18 days. It is seen, the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the co-accused has been granted bail by this court. It is seen, substantial portion of investigation has been completed. The petitioner seemed to be the first offender, no previous case is pending against him. Taking into consideration the duration of custody, nature of allegations levelled against the petitioner, injured person has been discharged from hospital, the co-accused has been granted bail by this court, stage of investigation and also considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with conditions.

7. In the result, this petition is allowed; The petitioner/accused is ordered to be released on bail on his execution of bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thiruporur, with further conditions that;

1. The sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression (LTI) in the surety bond and the sureties shall produce copy of any identity proof before the learned Magistrate to ensure their identity;
2. The petitioner/accused are directed to report before the respondent police station daily at 10.30 A.M. for a period of 30 days;
3. The petitioner/accused shall not tamper the evidence either during investigation or trial;
4. If there is any breach of conditions, the Investigation Officer shall report to the learned Magistrate and the learned Magistrate shall take appropriate action as if the conditions have been imposed by the Magistrate himself/herself in accordance with the decision in AIR 2006 SC 100 - P.K. Shaji Vs State of Kerala.
