State of Tamilnadu,
Rep. by the Inspector of Police,
Manambath Police Station,
Cr. No.50 of 2026

.. Respondent/Complainant

U/s.4(1)A r/w. 4(1)i and 4(1A ii) of TNP Act

This petition for bail coming on this day for hearing before me, M/s.V.Venkatesan, the learned counsel is appearing for the petitioner/accused and of M/s.V.Krishnamoorthy, the learned Public Prosecutor is appearing for the respondent/complainant, upon hearing both sides and upon perusal of case records, this Court made the following

ORDER

This petition is filed U/s.483 of BNSS 2023, praying to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

2. The petitioner/accused is facing charges for the alleged offences U/s.4(1)A r/w. 4(1)i and 4(1A ii) of TNP Act.

3. Notice given to the Public Prosecutor for the State and reply received. Heard both sides; records perused.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner; he was arrested and remanded on 10.07.2026 and he is under judicial custody for the past 18 days; moreover, the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed upon him and he is ready to offer substantial sureties before the court, thereby praying to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

5. The learned Public Prosecutor, on the other hand, would submit that during patrolling, the respondent police found that the petitioner was found in possession of 30 bottles each containing 180 ML of spurious liquor, in order to sell the same to others. Moreover, the petitioner is the history sheeter, involved in six other previous cases and prays for the dismissal of the petition.

6. It is alleged that the petitioner was found in possession of 30 bottles of spurious liquor, in order to sell liquors to other persons. It is settled principle of law, while considering the bail application of an accused, his previous antecedents must also be taken into account. It is submitted by the learend Public Prosecutor that the petitioner is the history sheeter, involved in six other previous cases. Taking into consideration the gravity of the offence, nature of allegations levelled against the petitioner, the petitioner is the history sheeter, involved in six other previous cases and also considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with conditions. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in the open Court, on this the 27th day of July 2026.

Principal District and Sessions Judge, Chengalpattu.
