

-/-

9

Civ DJ 433/25

SATYAPLA SINGH DAHIYA Vs. M/S I P PASRICHA AND CO

26.11.2025

Present: Sh. Bharat Garg, Ld. Counsel for plaintiff (through VC).
Sh. Prakhar Vashisht, Ld. Counsel for defendant (through VC).

Ld. Counsel for defendant has fairly conceded at Bar that without admitting the genuineness of documents to be placed on record, the defendant does not wish to object the application filed under Order VII Rule 14 CPC.

Considering the above submission of Ld. Counsel for defendant, the application earlier moved on behalf of plaintiff under Order VII Rule 14 CPC is allowed. Documents annexed with the said application are taken on record.

Parties have already filed respective affidavits of admission/denial of documents.

At present, it is submitted on behalf of the parties that there are no elements of settlement through arbitration, conciliation or mediation.

Pleadings are complete. The same are perused.

From the pleadings of the parties, following issues are framed for trial:-

ISSUES

1. Whether the plaintiff is entitled to decree of declaration, as prayed in para (a) of the prayer clause of the plaint? OPP
2. Whether the plaintiff is entitled to decree of recovery of Rs.15,14,867/-, as prayed in the para (b) of the prayer clause of the plaint? OPP
3. Whether the plaintiff is entitled to interest on the abovesaid amount, if yes, at what rate and for which period? OPP
4. Relief.

No other issue arises or is pressed for.

Put up for Plaintiff Evidence on 06.05.2026.
Parties shall file list of witnesses, within 15 days from today with copy to the opposite party. Evidence affidavits of plaintiff's witnesses be filed within four weeks from today and copy of same supplied to the defendant at least 30-days before the next date of hearing. The plaintiff shall take steps for summoning of witnesses, if any, within 15-days from today.

(Naveen Gupta)
District Judge-09,
West District, Tis Hazari Courts,
Delhi, 26.11.2025