

Witness present and duly sworn in on:08.02.2019.

Cross examination by Sri. Advocate for Respondent no..

I have studied upto 5th standard. I came to know about the accident at evening when I was near my house. My father was lying at hospital. Somashekar is first informant. He is my neighbor. The doctor did not enquiry either me or my family members. I did not verify the hospital records. I don't know about the police documents after Somashekar lodged FIS. Police did not record my statement.

I have visited the accident spot. It is broader. There is no footpath and there is wall on either side. It is true to suggest that any pedestrian is suppose to walk on the road itself. It is false to suggest that my father was walking on the middle of the road. My father was walking on left side at 1 feet distance from the wall. It is two way road. It is false to suggest that my father was responsible for this accident. It is false to suggest that by suppressing truth false complaint was lodged.

I am a Coolie and I earn Rs.400 per day. It is false to suggest that I have colluded with the police and created the police documents. Sangeetha is my sister. She is teacher at school. She is earning Rs.7,500/- per month. My mother is house maid. She earns Rs.4,500 per month. Siddamma is my grand mother and she is at home and not working. My father was a mestri and working independent as and when he got work. There is no document in that respect. He was mestri for
