4. Notice issued to the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor and the respondent/police and respondent side reply filed and contented that if the petitioners are enlarged on bail they will commit the similar type of offence in future and also tamper the evidence and the accused persons are having one previous cases which is similar in nature of this case. 6. Upon perusal of records the petitioners were remanded to judicial custody on on 23.05.2026 in Cr.No.175/2026 of Sankar Nagar PS for the offence U/s. 115(2), 118(1), 126(2), 296(b), 308(2) 351(3) BNS in Cr.No.175/2026. The petitioners filed this petition for grant of bail, and prosecution have vehemently objected the petition. This court upon perusing the entire case records and relevant documents, the accused was alleged to have committed an Offence U/s. 115(2), 118(1), 126(2), 296(b), 308(2) 351(3) BNS in Cr.No.175/2026. On perusal of entire records it is found that the accused /petitioner was involved in the commission of above offence. Hence upon perusal of the entire records and relevant document it is found that the investigation is at initial stage and upon considering nature and gravity of offence committed and considering the previous antecedent of accused who was involved in the similar type of offence of this case and further if the above accused person is released on bail the petitioner would tamper the evidences and would threaten the defacto complainant and no change in circumstances in the case. Therefore this court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners. Hence, for the reasons stated above and in the interest of the justice this petition is dismissed.

7. In the result this petition is dismissed.
