...Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up on this day for final hearing before this court in the presence of M/s.C.Sudhakar, K.Thirumoorthyguru, S.Mohan counsels for petitioner, Assistant Public Prosecutor Grade-I for the respondent and upon perusing the documents and having stood over for consideration till this date, this court made the following,

Order

1. The petition is filed under section 480 BNSS to enlarge the petitioner/accused on bail in Crime No.300/2026.
2. In the petition, it is stated that petitioner was arrested for the offence under sections 115(2), 296(b), 351(2) BNS and 4 of TNPHW Act and detained to judicial custody on 16.07.2026. Petitioner is innocent and falsely implicated in this case. He is ready to offer substantial sureties. Hence filed this bail application to enlarge petitioner on bail.

3. A notice was issued to the respondent and Assistant Public Prosecutor. A detailed reply statement was filed by the respondent. In the reply statement stated that the investigation is still pending, if the accused is released on bail he may commit similar kind of offence and he may abscond. Hence strongly objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The arguments heard on the side of counsel for the petitioner. The learned petitioner's counsel argued that petitioner is innocent and false case have been foisted against accused. Petitioner is in judicial custody for 5 days. Hence, prayed to grant bail to petitioner with stringent conditions.

5. The entire records perused. On perusal of the records, petitioner was arrested and detained to judicial custody on 16.07.2026 and he is in judicial custody for 5 days till date. The offence against accused is under section 115(2), 296(b), 351(2) BNS. Except section 4 of TNPHW act other offences are bailable in nature.

6. On considering the facts and circumstances, the nature of offence committed by petitioner, there is no previous case pending against petitioner and that except section 4 of TNPHW other offences are bailable in nature, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

(i) Petitioner is directed to furnish two sureties by executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the satisfaction of this court. Out of which one surety must be a blood relative of the petitioner(father/mother/son/daughter/wfie/siblings)

The sureties are directed to produce ration card or bank pass book and Aadhar Card for their identity and residential proof. Further the sureties are directed to furnish two recent photographs each and directed to make their thumb impression in the bond.
