APPLICANT :

Thakor Govindsinh Vajesinh
Age: 33 Years, Occupation: Farming
R/o.: Golapur, Ta-Dist: Patan.

V/s.

OPPONENT :

The State of Gujarat

APPEARANCE :

Mr.P.G.Zala - Ld. Adv. for Applicant / Accused.
Mr.S.H.Thakkar – Ld. P.P. for Opponent / State.

-: J U D G M E N T :-

1. In order to secure regular bail U/s. 483 of the B.N.S.S. in connection with C.R. No.11217026260335/2026 registered at Patan Taluka police station for the offence punishable U/s. 65(F) of the Prohibition Act.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that, the present applicant was having 5000 liter country made Indian liquor (wash) worth Rs.1,25,000/- in his possession at his court yard (vado) and when police conducted raid, the applicant was not found present at his place. The applicant was arrested later on and sent to judicial custody after his bail application came to be rejected by the trial court and hence he is before this court seeking the regular bail.
3. Learned advocate for the applicants has submitted that the applicant is falsely implicated in the alleged offence and he is innocent. It is stated that the applicant would not flee away and abide all the conditions of the bail. The applicant has prayed to release him on regular bail in view of above as well as other grounds stated in the present application.
4. The learned P.P. has submitted that the quantity of muddamal liquor seized was a huge quantity. If the applicant is released on bail, he may again involve in such kind of activity and so considering the gravity of the offence, the present application may be rejected.
5. Heard the learned advocates for the respective parties. Read the application and affidavit filed by the Investigating Officer as well as perused the record.
6. The applicant is in judicial custody at present in connection with the offence and therefore he is before this court seeking the regular bail. Considering the facts of the case, the present applicant was not arrested with muddamal from the spot at the time of raid by the police. Thus, no muddamal was seized from the conscious possession of the applicant at the time of raid by the police. Moreover, the present offence is triable by the learned J.M.F.C. and there is no capital punishment for the alleged offence in the statute. If the present application is allowed with suitable conditions to ensure the presence of the applicant during the trial, it would be in the interest of justice. So considering the facts of the case and principles laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sanjay Chandra V/s. C.B.I. 2012(1), S.C.C. 40, 2012 (1), G.L.H. 93, if discretionary power vested with this court to release the applicant on bail is utilized with suitable conditions, it would be just and proper. So I pass following order.
