Cr. No.154/2026

.. Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated 16.07.2026 through e-filed and U/s. 482 of BNSS seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner/accused.

This petition came before this Court for final hearing today in the presence of Thiru.N.Prabakaran, the learned Counsel for the petitioner and of Thiru.T.Sivachandran, the learned Public Prosecutor for the respondent and heard either side and on perusing all the records, this Court delivered the following.....

ORDER

This petitioner / 1st accused seeks anticipatory bail for the alleged offences U/s. 296(b), 115(2), 351(2) and 329(3) of BNS 2023 and Section 4 of TNPHW Act.

2. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner/ 1st accused would submit that the petitioners did not involve in this case incident as alleged by prosecution; due to wordy quarrel between the both parties; the defacto complainant foisted this false complaint against this petitioner; that if she is released on anticipatory bail he will abide the conditions of this Court and that she may be released on anticipatory bail.

3. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that due to wordy quarrel between the parties, on 14.07.2026 at about 8.00 p.m., the accused criminally trespassed into the defacto complainant's house and with an intent to insult the defacto complainant abused her in filthy language, attacked her with hands thereby caused injury and also criminally intimidated her; if she is released on anticipatory bail, she will commit the similar nature offence again and he will abscond and that the petition may be dismissed.

4. Upon hearing both sides arguments and as per the FIR contents, it is seen that due to wordy quarrel, at the time of alleged incident, the petitioners used uttered obscene words towards the defacto complainant and assaulted her. It is fairly conceded on prosecution that no any previous case is reported against her. Admittedly no one was injured in this incident.

Considering the above circumstances and in the interest of justice, this Court is inclined to release the petitioner / 1st accused on anticipatory bail on the following conditions:

1. That the petitioner / 1st accused in the event of her arrest or surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Oddanchathram within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioner is ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties for a like sum; if the petitioner / 1st accused is not surrender within 15 days from the date of this order this anticipatory bail shall stands cancelled automatically.
2. The sureties shall affix their photograph and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.
3. The petitioner / 1st accused shall appear and sign before the respondent Police station daily at 10.00 a.m. for a period of 2 weeks without fail.
4. The petitioner / 1st accused shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
5. The petitioner / 1st accused shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
6. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].
7. If the 1st accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under section 269 of BNS

Pronounced by me in open Court this the 20th day of July 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge, Dindigul.
