Cr. No.333/2026

: Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated 16.07.2026 through e-filed and U/s. 482 of BNSS seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners/accused.

This petition came before this Court for final hearing today in the presence of Thiru.P.Sangarguru, the learned Counsel for the petitioners and of Thiru.T.Sivachandran, the learned Public Prosecutor for the respondent and heard either side and on perusing all the records, this Court delivered the following.....

ORDER

This petitioners / accused 1 and 2 seek bail for the alleged offences U/S. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS 2023 and Section 4 of TNPHW Act.

2. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners / accused 1 and 2 would submit that the petitioners did not involve in this case incident as alleged by prosecution; due to previous enmity between the both parties; the defacto complainant assaulted the petitioners; for which the petitioner filed complaint and registered a case in FIR No.332/2026; in order to escape from the clutches of law this false complaint has been foisted; if they are released on anticipatory bail they will abide the conditions of this Court and that they may be released on anticipatory bail.

3. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that due to previous enmity, that on 11.07.2026 at about 06.00 p.m, the accused with an intent to insult the defacto complainant abused her in filthy language, attacked her with hands and wooden sticks thereby caused injuries and also threatened her with dire consequences; that investigation is pending; if they are released on anticipatory bail, they will commit the similar nature offence again and they will abscond and that the petition may be dismissed.

4. Upon hearing both sides arguments and as per the FIR contents, it is seen that due to previous enmity, at the time of alleged incident, the petitioners used obscene words towards the defacto complainant and assaulted her. It is fairly conceded on prosecution that no any previous case is reported against them. Admittedly injured was discharged from the hospital.

Considering the above circumstances and in the interest of justice, this Court is inclined to release the petitioners / accused 1 and 2 on anticipatory bail on the following conditions:

1. That the petitioners/accused 1 and 2 in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate, Aathoor within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioners are ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties for a like sum; if the petitioners/accused 1 and 2 not surrender within 15 days from the date of this order this anticipatory bail shall stands cancelled automatically.
2. The sureties shall affix their photograph and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.
3. The petitioners/accused 1 and 2 shall appear and sign before the respondent Police station daily at 10.00 a.m. for a period of 2 weeks without fail.
4. The petitioners/accused 1 and 2 shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
5. The petitioners/accused 1 and 2 shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
6. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

.3.

7. If the petitioners/accused 1 and 2 thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under section 269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in open Court this the 22nd day of July 2026.

Dindigul.
