Cr.No.20/2023

U/s.379 of IPC

... Respondent/ Complainant

Petition filed seeking bail and U/s.480 of BNSS to release the petitioner /accused on bail.

This petition has been filed on behalf of petitioner /accused U/s.480 of BNSS on 13.03.2026 by Petitioner accused counsel Tr.M.Balachandran, B.Sc., LLB., Advocate and Issued notice to Learned APP and concerned Police and upon perusal of petition, records and the objection filed by the respondent and upon hearing of both sides, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

1. The petitioner / accused is seeking release on bail for the offense alleged to have been committed by him U/s.379 of IPC

2. The Learned counsel for petitioner / accused submitted that the Petitioner is arrested on 26.09.2025 for the alleged offenses U/s.379 of IPC and remanded to judicial custody on 26.09.2025. The petitioner is innocent of an alleged offences against him and he will not abscond and ready to furnish solvent sureties as satisfaction of this court and also ready to abide any condition imposed by this court. Further submitted that he has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner /accused is not likely to abscond or interfere with the investigation. Hence, the Petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

3. The learned APP submitted that the investigation of the case was completed and the charge sheet also filed and the case is numbered as CC 653/2025. Furthermore, now the above case is in the stage of trial, if the petitioner/ accused is released on bail, he will abscond and avoid trial proceedings and may commit the same kind of offence and will tamper the evidence. Hence the learned APP vehemently opposed to release the accused on bail.

4. The investigation officer submitted that if the petitioner/ accused released on bail he may again commit the same kind of offence, avoid trial proceedings, tamper the witnesses. Hence the investigation officer is opposed to release the accused on bail.

5. Heard both sides, on perusal of records the petitioner accused is remanded to judicial custody on 26.09.2025 for the offence U/s.379 of IPC. On considering the nature, facts and circumstances of the case, lengthy of custody, the petitioner/ accused is ready to furnish sureties and co-operate with the case proceedings, Hence this court is inclined to enlarged petitioner/ accused on bail subject to following conditions.

- i. The petitioner/ accused is ordered to be released on bail on his execution of bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum.
- ii. The petitioner on his release from prison shall report before the respondent Police Station every day at 10.00 A.M. and sign for 20 days.

- iii. The petitioner shall not indulge in similar kind of offenses.
- iv. The petitioner shall not abscond, either investigation or during trial.
- v. The petitioner shall not tamper the witness or interfere to smooth progress of the investigation and the petitioner should appear before the investigation officer when required for the interrogation.
- vi. If the petitioner thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR may be filed U/s 269 of BNS.
- vii. The petitioner /accused shall appear before this court on summons.

Accordingly, this bail petition is allowed.

This order was dictated, typed, corrected and pronounced by me in Open Court on this 17th day of March 2026.
