Cr.No.262/2026

U/s.229 (A) of IPC

... Respondent/ Complainant

Petition filed seeking bail and U/s.480 of BNSS to release the petitioner /accused on bail.

This petition has been filed on behalf of petitioner /accused U/s.480 of BNSS on 26.05.2026 by Petitioner accused counsel Tr.J.Mohanraj, M.Sc., B.L., Advocate and Issued notice to Learned APP and concerned Police and upon perusal of petition, records and the objection filed by the respondent and upon hearing of both sides, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

1. The petitioner / accused is seeking release on bail for the offense alleged to have been committed by him U/s.229 (A) of IPC

2. The Learned counsel for petitioner / accused submitted that, the petitioner/accused was previously arrested in connection with Crime No. 838/2018 on the file of the Dindigul Town North Police Station and was subsequently enlarged on bail on 08.02.2019. However, in violation of the bail conditions, the accused failed to appear for the trial proceedings and went absconding. Consequently, a fresh case was registered against the accused U/s. 229(A) of IPC in Crime No. 262/2026 at the Dindigul Town North Police Station. Pursuant to this, the accused was arrested on 22.05.2026 and was remanded to judicial custody on the very same day. The petitioner is innocent of an alleged offences against him and he will not abscond and ready to furnish solvent sureties as satisfaction of this court and also ready to abide any condition imposed by this court. Further submitted that he is in judicial custody for the past 13 days and The petitioner /accused is not likely to abscond or interfere with the investigation. Hence, the Petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

3. The learned APP submitted that the investigation of the case is not yet completed. If the petitioner/ accused is released on bail, he may be abscond again and avoid trial proceedings and may commit same kind of offenses and will tamper the evidence. Hence the learned APP vehemently opposed to release the accused on bail.

4. The investigation officer submitted that if the petitioner/ accused released on bail he may again commit the same kind of offence, avoid trial proceedings, tamper the witnesses. Hence the investigation officer is opposed to release the accused on bail.

5. Heard both sides, on perusal of records the petitioner/accused was remanded to judicial custody on 22.05.2026 for the offence U/s.229(A) of IPC. On considering the nature, facts and circumstances of the case, lengthy of custody, the petitioner/ accused is ready to furnish sureties and co-operate with the investigation, Hence this court is inclined to enlarged petitioner/ accused on bail subject to following conditions.

- i. The petitioner/ accused is ordered to be released on bail on a condition to produce two sureties for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) to the satisfaction of this court. Among which one shall be blood surety.

- ii. The petitioner on his release from prison shall appear and sign before the respondent Police Station every day at 10.00 A.M. until the further order of this case.
- iii. The petitioner shall not indulge in similar kind of offenses.
- iv. The petitioner shall not abscond, either investigation or during trial.
- v. The petitioner shall not tamper the witness or interfere to smooth progress of the investigation and the petitioner should appear before the investigation officer when required for the interrogation.
- vi. If the petitioner thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR may be filed U/s 269 of BNS.
- vii. The petitioner /accused shall appear before this court on summons.

Accordingly, this bail petition is allowed.

This order was dictated to Steno Typist, typed by him, corrected and pronounced by me in Open Court on this 3rd day of June 2026.
