Cr.No.243/2026

U/s.303(2) of BNS

... Respondent/ Complainant

Petition filed seeking bail and U/s.480 of BNSS to release the petitioner /accused on bail.

This petition has been filed on behalf of petitioner /accused U/s.480 of BNSS on 01.06.2026 by Petitioner accused counsel Tmt.M.Muniswari, B.A., B.L., Advocate and Issued notice to Learned APP and concerned Police and upon perusal of petition, records and the objection filed by the respondent and upon hearing of both sides, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

1. The petitioner / accused is seeking release on bail for the offense alleged to have been committed by him U/s.303(2) of BNS.

2. The Learned counsel for the petitioner / accused submitted that the accused is alleged to have stolen the complainant's vehicle, and consequently, a case was registered against him under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS). Pursuant to this, the petitioner was arrested on 09.05.2026 and remanded to judicial custody. The petitioner is innocent of the alleged offences leveled against him, will not abscond, and is ready to furnish solvent sureties to the satisfaction of this Court. He is also ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. It is further submitted that he has been falsely implicated in this case and has been in judicial custody for the past 26 days. The petitioner/accused is not likely to abscond or interfere with the investigation. Hence, it is prayed that the Petitioner may be enlarged on bail.

3. The learned APP submitted that the investigation of the case is not yet completed. If the petitioner/ accused is released on bail, he may be abscond and avoid trial proceedings and may commit same kind of offenses and will tamper the evidence. Hence the learned APP vehemently opposed to release the accused on bail.

4. The investigation officer submitted that if the petitioner/ accused released on bail he may again commit the same kind of offence, avoid trial proceedings, tamper the witnesses. Hence the investigation officer is opposed to release the accused on bail.

5. Heard both sides, on perusal of records the petitioner/accused was remanded to judicial custody on 09.05.2026 for the offence U/s.303(2) of BNS. On considering the nature, facts and circumstances of the case, lengthy of custody, the petitioner/ accused is ready to furnish sureties and co-operate with the investigation, Hence this court is inclined to enlarged petitioner/ accused on bail subject to following conditions.

- i. The petitioner/ accused is ordered to be released on bail on a condition to produce two sureties for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) to the satisfaction of this court. Among which one shall be blood surety.

- ii. The petitioner on his release from prison shall report before the respondent Police Station every day at 10.00 A.M. and sign for 25 days.
- iii. The petitioner shall not indulge in similar kind of offenses.
- iv. The petitioner shall not abscond, either investigation or during trial.
- v. The petitioner shall not tamper the witness or interfere to smooth progress of the investigation and the petitioner should appear before the investigation officer when required for the interrogation.
- vi. If the petitioner thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR may be filed U/s 269 of BNS.
- vii. The petitioner /accused shall appear before this court on summons.

Accordingly, this bail petition is allowed.

This order was dictated to Steno Typist, typed by him, corrected and pronounced by me in Open Court on this 3rd day of June 2026.
