Respondent / Complainant

This application coming on 01.06.2026 before me for final hearing in the presence of the Tr.P.Rajamani,M.A.,B.L., and Tmt.J.Jayamani,B.Sc.,LLB., Advocates appearing for petitioner/accused and APP appearing for state, upon hearing arguments of both parties, perusing the records and having stood over for consideration till this day, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

1. The petitioner / accused filed a bail application under section 480 of BNSS for the alleged offences U/s.7(1)(a) Criminal Law (Amendment) Act 2005 and 170 of BNSS. Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner / accused would contend that the petitioner / accused is innocent and no way connected for the above said alleged offence. The learned Counsel would further submit that the accused was falsely implicated in this case and the petitioner / accused was arrested and remanded on 21.05.2025, there is no previous case against the petitioner/ Accused and he is ready to furnish substantial sureties if he is released on bail, therefore prayed for releasing the petitioner / accused on bail.

2. In this petition reply received from the prosecution and stating in the reply that the case investigation is pending. Further stating that the accused is released on bail he may be abscond and tamper the witnesses. Hence, objected to release the accused on bail.

3. Heard both sides. On perusal of records it is seen that the petitioner / accused arrested and remanded to Cr.No.186/2026 of Palacode Police Station U/s.7(1)(a) Criminal Law (Amendment) Act 2005 and 170 of BNSS in judicial custody on 21.05.2026, and he is in Judicial Custody for the past 12 days. The major part of the case investigation would be completed at this point of time. Therefore, further incarceration of the petitioner / accused will not serve any purpose. Hence, considering the above mentioned facts and circumstances the case, the nature of case, period of judicial custody, gravity of offence and the age of the accused that this court inclined to enlarge the Petitioner on bail in the following condition :-

1. The petitioner / accused shall execute a bond sum of Rs.10,000/- along with two sufficient sureties like some each and out of whom, one surety must be a close relative of the petitioner / Accused;
2. The sureties shall affix their Photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and produced the copy of their Adhar card or Bank pass book to ensure the identity;
3. The petitioner / accused should appear and sign before the respondent police daily at 10.30 AM for the period of two weeks.
4. The petitioner / accused shall not abscond or tamper the witnesses during the investigation or trial. Further, he is directed to co-operate the investigation.
5. The Petitioner/ Accused not to commit similar offence violation of any condition the Bail may be cancelled.

Directly dictated to the Typist, corrected and pronounced by me in the open Court, this 01st day of June 2026.

Judicial Magistrate,
Palacode.
