Cr.No.111/2026

.... Respondent / Complainant

This petition came before me for final hearing before the Learned Advocate Mr.S.Arun B.Sc., B.L., and A. Raveendiran B.A., B.L., for the petitioner/accused and the Learned Additional Public prosecutor Gr-I for Prosecution and after hearing the counsel for the petitioners and considering the reply filed by the respondent/prosecution this court delivers the following

ORDER

1. The present bail petition has been filed by the petitioner / accused for the alleged offences U/s.191(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) BNS The petitioner / accused would contend that he is innocent and no way connected for the above said alleged offence. The petitioner/accused would further submit that he was falsely implicated in this case and the petitioner/accused was arrested and remanded on 25.05.2026, and he is ready to furnish substantial sureties if he is released on bail, therefore prayed for releasing the petitioner / accused on bail.

2. In this petition reply received from the prosecution and stating in the reply that the Investigation is pending. The alleged accused is a habitual offender. He has involved in theft offence under same PS Limit. Victim has discharged from hospital. At this earlier stage if the accused is released on bail he will again commit same offence and tamper the evidence. Hence, I strongly object to grant bail and the petitioner may be dismissed.

3. Heard both sides. On perusal of records it is seen that the petitioner / accused arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 25.05.2026 and he is in Judicial Custody for the past 8 days. The major part of the case investigation would be completed at this point of time and the injured person also has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, considering the nature of allegations and period of incarceration this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:-

1. The petitioner / accused shall execute a bond sum of Rs.10,000/- with two sufficient sureties like some each;
2. The sureties shall affix their Photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and produced the copy of their Adhar card or Bank pass book to ensure the identity;

01th day of June 2026.

Judicial Magistrate,
Pappireddipatti.
