

04.06.2026.

Petitioner, respondents No.1 to 3 and their respective counsels are present and requested to refer matter to daily Lok-Adalath.

The Petitioner, respondents No.1 to 3 and their respective counsels are present before daily Lok-Adalath.

Parties to the petition have filed compromise petition under Order XXIII Rule 3 of CPC.

The parties to the petition have been identified by their respective counsels before the court. In addition the parties have filed photocopy of their Aadhaar Cards and their recent photos.

The parties to the petition who are Petitioner, respondents No.1 to 3 have submitted they have compromised subject matter of petition as per terms of compromise petition.

The terms of compromise petition are read over to the parties in language known to them, after understanding same the parties have submitted they have compromised as per terms of compromise.

Further it is submitted on enquiry, the parties voluntarily entered into compromise and there is no threat or undue influence on them to enter into compromise. On enquiry of parties, it is satisfied, compromise entered as per terms of compromise between parties is voluntarily one.

On going through terms of compromise, they are not against any provision of law of contract and against public policy. There is no impediment to accept terms of compromise. Hence, I proceed to pass the following:

FDP No.25013/2013

ORDER

Final decree proceedings is hereby settled before Lok-Adalath as per terms of compromise petition.

Office is directed to draw final decree
as per terms of compromise.

XXVIII ACC & SJ., B'luru.

Judicial Conciliator.

Advocate conciliator.