

Accused is hereby convicted for the offence punishable U/s 341, 323, 504, 506 and 427 of IPC.

Counsel for the accused submits that accused has not convicted in any criminal case as of now and no criminal case pending against him. Therefore, accused may be released under the provisions of probation offenders act after due admonition.

The learned APP submits that on enquiry he came to know that no criminal cases are pending against him and he was not convicted in any criminal cases.

Punishment for the aforesaid offences not exceeding two years of imprisonment. Further accused was not said to have convicted in any criminal cases as of now for the circumstance in terms of sec. 3 of PO Act the accused released after due admonition, it meets the ends of justice. Thus, accused is released after due admonition in terms of sec. of PO Act.

Sd/-

Prl Civil Judge & JMFC.,
Anekal.