

Present: Sh. Ashwani Sharma, counsel for complainant.

Non bailable warrant of arrest issued against accused not received back. Perusal of file reveals that the case is pending for presence of accused since long and various abortive attempts have already been made to procure the presence of accused through summons and warrants but till date his presence could not be procured. The complainant submitted that the accused is not intentionally turning up in the court despite knowledge of the present criminal complaint against him. In view of these circumstances of the case and submission made by the Ld. Counsel for complainant, this court is satisfied that accused is absconding or concealing himself in order to avoid the process of law and presence of accused cannot be procured through ordinary process. Hence, accused be served through proclamation u/s 84 BNSS (Earlier Section 82 Cr.P.C.) by way of publication in newspaper "Pioneer" for 05.08.2026 on depositing of publication charges. It is made clear that only three effective opportunities will be given to pay publication fees.
