JUDGMENT

1. This is a case charge sheeted by the a Sub Inspector of Police, Kunnathunad Police Station alleging the accused has committed offences punishable u/ss 15(c) of Kerala Abkari Act.
2. Adv. Johnson Thomas appeared before Court and filed special vakalath by which the accused herein authorized the counsel to plead guilt on his behalf. Copies of the records were given to the counsel under Section 207 of Code of Criminal Procedure. Particulars of offences were read over and explained to the accused via counsel. Accused pleaded guilty through counsel. Since the plea is voluntary in nature the plea is accepted. From the prosecution records coupled with the plea of guilt made by the accused, it is established that accused committed the offence with which he is charged. Hence accused is convicted u/s 252 of Cr.P.C. Having regard to the facts of the case, I am of the view that it is not a fit case to invoke the benevolent provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act. In the result, accused are convicted and sentenced to pay fine of ₹ 500/- each for the offence punishable u/s 15(c) of Kerala Abkari Act with IDSI for 3 days each. Case against A2 slit up and refiled as ST 1636 of 2024.
