...Respondent/Complainant

This petition has come up today before this court in the presence of Tr.L.Mohan, Counsel for the petitioners and Tr.M.Visva Bharathi, Public Prosecutor for the respondent police, after hearing both sides, perusing the averments, this Court delivered the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioners/accused U/S. 483 of BNSS Act, seeking bail. Petitioners were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 21.02.2026 for the alleged offence U/S. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 125, 109(1), 191(2), 191(3) of BNS Act.

2] The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that these petitioners are innocent persons. The defacto complainant gave a false complainant against the petitioners with false allegations and the respondent police falsely implicated the petitioners in this case. The petitioners are in judicial custody for the past 19 days. The learned counsel for the petitioner further contended that the names of the petitioners are not mentioned in the FIR. The petitioners are law abiding citizens and they are only breadwinner of their families and they are ready to abide the condition if any to be imposed by this court. Accordingly, the learned counsel for the petitioners prayed to release the petitioner on bail.

3] On the other hand, the learned Public prosecutor vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner by stating that during the festival period, while under intoxication the petitioners along with the other accused has assaulted the general public by using a knife and caused injury to them and committed the alleged offence. Accordingly, the learned Public prosecutor opposed for grant of bail to the petitioners and he further submitted that the victim persons have already been discharged from the hospital.

4] Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsels on either side and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners and also considering the fact that the victim persons have already been discharged from the hospital and there is no life-threatening situation. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

(a) In the result, this petition is allowed and the petitioners are hereby ordered to be released on bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, No-I, Krishnagiri.

(b) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the learned Judicial Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

(c) Further, the petitioners shall make themselves available for interrogation as and when required by the investigation officer.

(d) The petitioners shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 9.00 A.M, Until further orders. The condition which is being imposed to be complied without any deviation. No further application will be entertained for a period of 30 days.

(e) The petitioners shall not abscond during trial and shall not tamper with witness/evidence.

(f) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate, is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions are imposed by the above said Magistrate and the petitioners are released on bail by the trial Court itself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs.State of Kerala (2005 AIR SCW 5560). If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh F.I.R can be registered u/sec.269 of BNS Act, With the above directions, this petition is allowed.
