CRIMINAL MISCELLANEOUS PETITION NO. 859/ 2026

1.Jagadesh Kumar

...Petitioner/Accused

/ Versus /

State: The Inspector of police,

Anchetty P.S, Cr.No:23/2024, PRC.No.01/2025.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition has come up today before this court in the presence of Tr.G.D.Lokesh, Counsel for the petitioner and Tr.M.Visva Bharathi, Public Prosecutor for the respondent, after perusing the petition averments, upon hearing both side arguments, this Court pronounces the following:

ORDER

This petition has been filed by the petitioners/accused U/S. 483 of BNSS Act, seeking bail. Petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 06.02.2026 for the alleged offence U/S. 279, 337, 308 of IPC , 185 of MV Act @ 279, 308, 338 of IPC and 185 of MV Act.

2] The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The learned counsel for the petitioner further contended that the petitioner is working as a driver and, in connection with his work, he had gone to another State, due to which he could not appear before the trial Court on the hearing date. The petitioner is in judicial custody for the past 35 days. The petitioner is a law abiding citizen and he has only breadwinner of his family and he is ready to abide the condition if any to be imposed by this court. Accordingly, the learned counsel for the petitioner prayed to release the petitioner on bail.

3] On the other hand, the learned Public prosecutor vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner by stating that the petitioner failed to appear before the concerned trial Court, which compelled the Court to issue a Non-Bailable Warrant (NBW) against him. Moreover, the NBW remained pending for 10 months, during which period the petitioner had absconded and evaded execution of the warrant. The NBW was finally executed only on 06.02.2026. Accordingly, the learned Public prosecutor strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4] Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5] Taking into consideration that the accused is hailing from Andhra Pradesh and further considering that the petitioner had been absconding for about 10 months and, for the reasons best known to him, did not appear before the court, and because of his absence the case could not be committed, and P.R.C.No.01/2025 has been pending without committal, this Court is of the view that committal has become very difficult. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

In fine, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in the Open Court on this, the 12th day of March 2026.
