Rep. by P.P. Nagercoil.

.. Respondent

This petition is filed by Advocate Thiru Prem Sahayadhas, u/s 483 of BNSS, praying to grant bail to the petitioner.

ORDER

Heard both sides. Perused the petition.

2. The petitioner/accused is alleged to have committed the offences u/s 296(b), 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS and Sec. 75 and 77 of J J Act.

3. The case of prosecution is that the informant is a widow having two sons and she had married the 1st accused on 12.04.2026. The 1st accused who is addicted to alcohol used to assault the informant and the children. On 29.04.2026 at 9.00 P.M., the accused came home in a drunken mood along with 2nd accused and under the influence of alcohol, they poured brandy on the mouth of the elder son of the informant and when the informant quarrelled, the accused beat her son. Again on 01.05.2026 at about 8.16 A.M. the 1st accused under the influence of alcohol, quarrelled with the informant, threatened her and pushed down the younger son of the informant.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he is the friend of the 1st accused and no such occurrence took place as alleged by the informant and the petitioner is under judicial custody from 07.05.2026 and the earlier bail petition in CrI.M.P. No.139/2026 was dismissed by the Vacation Sessions Court, Nagercoil on 22.05.2026 and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition and prayed for bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Public Prosecutor opposed the application and submitted that the 1st accused is the husband of the defacto complainant and on 29.04.2026 the 1st accused administered liquor to the minor child. So the mother of the child questioned the petitioner and the 1st accused, the first accused along with the present petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant. So this case is registered and the earlier bail petition in CrI.M.P. No.139/2026 was dismissed by the Vacation Sessions Court, Nagercoil on 22.05.2026 and now the injured was discharged from the hospital and the investigation of the case is not yet over.

6. Considering the nature of the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and also considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner/accused i.e for the past 34 days, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with conditions.

7. In the result, the petitioner/Accused is ordered to be enlarged on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for a likesum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kuzhithurai and after release the petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police daily at 10.00 A.M. until further orders and accordingly this petition is allowed.

If there is any violation of condition, the Investigation Officer is with in his discretion to approach the court of the learned Judicial Magistrate for cancellation of bail even though bail granted by the Sessions Court as per the ruling of the Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in P.K.Shaji /Vs./ State of Kerala, (2005) AIR S.C.W. 5560.
