

Present: Ld. Counsels for the respective parties.

File has been taken up today upon the oral request of Ld. counsels for the parties, who submitted at bar that there are chances of compromise between the parties and prayed for keeping the matter in the National Lok Adalat. In view of the oral request made by Ld. Counsels for the respective parties, the case is ordered to be taken up in the National Lok Adalat to be held on 14.03.2026 for negotiating the possibility of compromise between the parties. The counsels are directed to produce both the parties/their authorized representatives in person before the National Lok Adalat on the date fixed.
