

S.C. 36/2023 Date 21.07.2026

The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the accused is no more, for which death certificate already filed. Hence the charge is abated against the accused. On perusal of the records, it is found that the S.C.No.36/2023 has been splitted from SC 233/2004, totally five accused and the cases by the other accused were ended with acquainted and no property was marked. Since the accused is no more as per the death certificate, the charge made against him is abated as such the sessions case is to be disposed as abated. No properties are available for orders.

In the result, the charge framed against the accused is abated. No properties are available for orders.

Sd/- R. Karl Marx
Sub Judge
Eraniel