Cr.No. 11/2026

. . . Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for hearing today in the presence of counsels M/s. K. Prabakaran, J. Ravichandiran, M. Elango, V. Amudhan, V. Naveen, appearing for the petitioner/Accused and Thiru. E.L.Kannan, the Public Prosecutor for the respondent/Prosecution, on perusal of reply submitted by Prosecution and upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both side, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who was arrested on 16.03.2026 for commission of alleged offences under Section 64, 351(2), 316(2) of BNS, 67(A) of IT Act has filed the present petition seeking Bail under section.483 of the BNSS, 2023.

The learned counsel for the petitioner /accused has filed the present bail application on the ground that no offence as stated by the prosecution has taken place and that a false case has been foisted upon him. He would further state that the case was compromised between the parties that it was domestic quarrel between the petitioner/accused and his wife. While so, the defacto complainant being his wife's sister has preferred the present complaint. On these grounds he would pray for grant of bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would strongly oppose for the grant of bail on the ground that the investigation is pending in a preliminary stage and he would strongly oppose for grant of bail.

The defacto complainant is present before this court and has filed an affidavit stating that the matter was already compromised between the parties in the police station and that she has no objection to enlarge the petitioner/accused on bail. The identity of the defacto complainant is also been verified by this court.

Heard the parties concerned and perused the relevant records. In this case, considering the fact that it was domestic dispute between the petitioner/accused and his wife. Considering the nature of the complaint and the absence of any criminal antecedents and considering the length of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail on condition.

Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur and on further condition that

- (a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to confirm their identity.
- (b) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders.
- (c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence/hamper investigation and shall not influence the witness(es) in any manner either during investigation or trial.
- (d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
- (e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, the prosecution shall be at liberty to register a fresh FIR under Section 269 of BNS.

//This order has been dictated by me to the Stenographer, typed by her in the computer, corrected and pronounced by me in the Court on this Thursday the 26th day of March 2026.//
