Cr.No.27/2026.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for hearing today in the presence of counsels M/s. R. Arulraj, J. Revathi, appearing for the petitioner/Accused and Thiru. E.L.Kannan, the Public Prosecutor for the respondent/Prosecution, on perusal of reply submitted by Prosecution and upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both side, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who was arrested on 24.02.2206 for commission of alleged offences under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS has filed the present petition seeking Bail under s.483 of the BNSS, 2023.

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused has filed the present bail application on the ground that no offence as stated by the prosecution has taken place and that a false case has been foisted upon the petitioner/accused herein. She would point out that the petitioner/accused is in custody since 24.02.2026 and that the co-accused namely A.1 is enlarged on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur in CrI.M.P.No. 327/2026 dated 10.03.2026. However, the application filed by the present petitioner/accused was dismissed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur due to which the present bail application has been filed before this court. On these grounds, she would pray for grant of bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would strongly oppose for the grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner/accused is said to have waylaid the defacto complainant and caused injury with knife and stone due to which the case came to be registered. He would state that there are four previous cases pending against the petitioner/accused herein and the investigation is still pending. On these grounds he would strongly oppose for grant of bail.

Heard the parties concerned and perused the relevant records. Upon perusal of records, it is seen that the earlier cases were registered in the year 2022, 2023 and 2024. While so, the present petitioner/accused is in custody since 24.02.2026. It is seen that the material part of the investigation might have been completed by now. Hence, considering the facts and circumstances, this court is inclined to grant bail on condition.

Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur and on further condition that

(a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to confirm their identity.

(b) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders.

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence/hamper investigation and shall not influence the witness in any manner either during investigation or trial.

(d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, the prosecution shall be at liberty to register a fresh FIR under Section 269 of BNS.
