Cr.No.23/2026.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for hearing today in the presence of counsels M/s. R. Vijayakanth, S. Karthik, N.M. Bharathiraja, V. Naveen, D. Suriya, appearing for the petitioner/Accused and Thiru. E.L.Kannan, the Public Prosecutor for the respondent/Prosecution, on perusal of reply submitted by Prosecution and upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both side, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who was arrested on 17.02.2206 for commission of alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2) of BNS r/w Sec. 4 of TNPPDL Act has filed the present petition seeking Bail under s.483 of the BNSS, 2023.

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused has filed the present bail application on the ground that a false case has been foisted upon him and the petitioner/accused is in custody since 17.02.2026. He would point out that the co-accused namely A.1 was enlarged on bail by this court in Crl.M.P.No. 399/2026 on 25.02.2026 and on these grounds, he would pray for grant of bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would strongly oppose for the grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner/accused having four previous cases pending against him. It is pointed out that the co-accused namely A.1 was enlarged on bail by this court in Crl.M.P.No. 399/2026 on 25.02.2026 and on these grounds he would oppose for grant of bail.

Heard the parties concerned and perused the relevant records. Upon perusal of records, it is seen that the petitioner/accused is in custody since 17.02.2026 and the petitioner/accused is having four previous pending against him. It is seen that the previous cases registered in the year 2022 and 2024. Considering the nature of accusation, material part of investigation might have been completed by now. Already the co-accused namely A.1 was enlarged on bail by this court in Crl.M.P.No. 399/2026 on 25.02.2026. While so, on the ground of parity, this court is inclined to grant bail on condition.

Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur and on further condition that

(a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to confirm their identity.

(b) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders.

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence/hamper investigation and shall not influence the witness in any manner either during investigation or trial.

(d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, the prosecution shall be at liberty to register a fresh FIR under Section 269 of BNS.
