Cr.No. 171/2026

. . . Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for final hearing today which was filed by M/s D. Nandhakumar, A. Krishnan, S. Bharanidevi, E. Abikiruthika, Counsels appearing for the petitioners and the reply submitted by the police through Mr.E.L. Kannan, the Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent, upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both sides, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for alleged offences under sections 6(4) of TNSC Order 1982 and 7(1) a(ii) EC Act has filed the present petition seeking anticipatory bail.

The learned counsel for the petitioners/accused has filed the present petition seeking anticipatory bail on the ground that no offence has stated by the prosecution and that a false case has been foisted upon him. He would state that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner/accused herein and the petitioner/accused is aged about 65 years. On these grounds he would pray for grant of anticipatory bail.

The learned Public prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would object on the ground that the petitioners/accused are said to have transported 1980 Kgs of PDS Rice due to which the present case came to be registered. He would state that the investigation is still pending. On these grounds he would oppose for grant of Anticipatory bail.

Heard the parties concerned and perused the relevant records. In this case, considering the nature of the accusation and the investigation is still pending and considering the facts and circumstances, this court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail. Hence the anticipatory bail application is dismissed.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.
