. . . Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for hearing today in the presence of counsels M/s. D. Nandhakumar, A. Krishnan, S. Bharanidevi, E. Abikiruthika, appearing for the petitioner/Accused and Thiru. E.L.Kannan, the Public Prosecutor for the respondent/Prosecution, on perusal of reply submitted by Prosecution and upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both side, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who was arrested on 05.06.2026 for commission of alleged offences under section 399 of IPC has filed the present petition seeking Bail under s.483 of the BNSS, 2023.

The learned counsel for the petitioner /accused has filed the present bail petition on the ground that he was arrested based on the Non Bailable Warrant issued by the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kancheepuram in PRC.No.10/2015. He was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 05.06.2026 and is in custody till date.

He would state that he was unable to appear before the trial court since he was arrested in respect of other cases and was in custody. Now, he would state that he is ready to co-operate with the trial court and on these grounds he would pray for grant of bail.

The learned Public prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would strongly oppose for the grant of bail on the ground that the case in PRC.No. 10/2015 was pending on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kancheepuram for committal due to the non appearance of the petitioner/accused. He would point out that the petitioner/accused has not appeared before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kancheepuram due to which subsequently Non Bailable Warrant was issued on 05.01.2026 and same was executed only on 06.06.2026. He would point out that the petitioner/accused is likely to abscond if he is enlarged on bail. He would point out that there are previous cases pending against the petitioner/accused herein and he would strongly oppose for the grant of bail.

Heard the parties concerned and perused the relevant records. This is a case of Jumped bail. In view of the execution of NBW issued as against the petitioner in PRC case, this petitioner has been arrested before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kancheepuram and has been remanded to judicial custody from 05.06.2026. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and to give an opportunity to the petitioner to defend the case, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner by imposing certain conditions.

Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kancheepuram and on further condition that

(a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to confirm their identity.

(b) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders.

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence/hamper investigation and shall not influence the witness in any manner either during investigation or trial.

(d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, the prosecution shall be at liberty to register a fresh FIR under Section 269 of BNS.

//This order has been dictated by me to the Stenographer, typed by her in the computer, corrected and pronounced by me in the Court on this Tuesday the 16th day of June 2026.//
