Cr.No. 124/2026

. . . Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for final hearing today which was filed by Mr. Nehru, Counsel appearing for the petitioner and the reply submitted by the police through Mr.E.L. Kannan, the Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent, upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both sides, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for alleged offences under sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS has filed the present petition seeking anticipatory bail.

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused has filed the present anticipatory bail on the ground that the no offence as stated by the prosecution has taken place and that a false case has been foisted upon him. He would further state that the petitioner/accused has no previous antecedents and is willing to co-operate with the investigation agency. He would state that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and on these grounds he would pray for grant of anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would state that the investigation is pending. He would state that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He would fairly concede that there are no previous case pending against the petitioner/accused herein and on these grounds he would oppose for the grant of anticipatory bail.

Heard the parties concerned and perused the relevant records. In this case, considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. There is no previous antecedents to the petitioner/accused and he is ready to co-operate with the investigation agency. Hence, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail on condition.

Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Kancheepuram on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that

(a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to confirm their identity.

(b) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders.

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence/hamper investigation and shall not influence the witness(es) in any manner either during investigation or trial.

(d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, the prosecution shall be at liberty to register a fresh FIR under Section 269 of BNS.

//This order has been dictated by me to the Stenographer, typed by her in the computer, corrected and pronounced by me in the Court on this Tuesday the 23rd day of June 2026.//
