Cr.No. 103/2026

. . . Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for hearing today in the presence of counsels M/s. M. Augustine, B. Hariharan, D. Kaviyarasu, P. Nithya, appearing for the petitioners/Accused and Thiru. V. Bharathi, the Public Prosecutor for the respondent/Prosecution, on perusal of reply submitted by Prosecution and upon hearing the arguments from the counsels on both side, upon perusing the entire records of the case, this Court passed the following:-

ORDER

The petitioner who was arrested on 17.06.2026 for commission of alleged offences under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 311, 351(3) of BNS Act has filed the present petition seeking Bail under section.483 of the BNSS, 2023.

The learned counsel for the petitioner /accused would state that no offence as stated by the prosecution has taken place and that a false case has been foisted upon the petitioner/accused herein. He would state that the petitioner/accused is in custody since 17.06.2026 and on these grounds he would pray for grant of bail.

The learned Public prosecutor on behalf of the respondent police would strongly oppose for the grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner/accused person assaulted the defacto complainant with knife. He would state that injured has been discharged from the hospital. He would state that the investigation is not yet completed and he would strongly oppose for the grant of bail.

Heard the both counsels concerned and perused the relevant records. Considering the rival submissions, it is seen that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Considering the nature of the accusation and the facts and circumstances, this court is inclined to grant bail on stringent conditions. The petitioner shall directed to appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders and also co-operate for investigation failing which he is not-co-operate, the prosecution is generally at liberty to move for bail cancellation under Section 439(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) (or the corresponding [Section 483(3) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS).

Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Sriperumbudur and on further condition that

- (a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to confirm their identity.
- (b) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. until further orders.
- (c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence/hamper investigation and shall not influence the witness(es) in any manner either during investigation or trial.
- (d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(f) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, the prosecution shall be at liberty to register a fresh FIR under Section 269 of BNS.
