P.Rajendiran S/o.Late.Perumal

....Plaintiff

..Vs..

P.Aadhikesavan S/o.Late.Perumal

...Defendant

This suit is coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of M/s.J.Kameshkumar, S.Saranraj and L.Parthasarathy advocates for the Plaintiff and the defendant was died, Plaintiff and defendant are died, this court delivers the following:

JUDGMENT

This petition is filed by the Plaintiff prays that this Hon'ble court may be pleased to pass a decree and Judgment against the defendant to grant a mandatory injunction as against the defendant to received the amount of Rs.30,000/- from the Plaintiff and executed the receipts infavour of Plaintiff in default the Plaintiff may be permitted to deposit the same and for cost of the suit.

Plaintiff counsel present. The case is posted for steps of deceased defendant since 14.11.2024. In the mean time the Plaintiff counsel also represent orally that the Plaintiff died. In this suit upon perusal of records it is noted that there are only one Plaintiff and one defendant. Due to lack of steps to implead the legal heirs of the defendant since 14.11.2024, the suit is abated. Nothing survives in the suit when the legal heirs are not impleaded despite the lapse of 90 days as mandated under order 22 Rule 4 CPC r/w article 120 of the limitation Act. Hence this suit is dismissed as abated. No cost.

Dictated to the Typist, who directly typed by her in computer corrected and pronounced by me in open court this the 30th day of June 2026.
