Present: Sh. Manish Bansal, Ld. APP for the State.
Complainant in person.

At this stage, PW/complainant has submitted that he is willing to settle the matter with the accused out of his own free will and volition and does not want any compensation from the accused.

Statement of complainant has been recorded separately to this effect.

In Y.P Baiju Vs. State of Kerala & Ors. decided on 30.10.2007, it was held that presence of accused is not necessary for the purpose of compounding as compounding is a unilateral Act.

In view of the statement of the complainant, the offences U/s 317(2) BNS stand compounded as the parties have been
