(Crime No. 24/2026)

....Respondent/Complainant

This petition coming on today for final hearing before me in the presence of Advocate Thiru.P.Rameshkumar, B.A., B.L., Advocate for the petitioner and Selvi.R.Murugeswari, B.A., B.L., appearing for the state and upon hearing the arguments of both sides and having stood over for consideration till this day, this Court has passed the following

ORDER

This petition is filed by the petitioner u/s.480 of BNSS.

1. The petitioner/accused is seeking bail for the alleged offences to have been committed by him u/s. 331(3), 305 of BNS in Cr.No.24/2026 of Vangal Police Station, Karur.

2. Gist of the petition is as follows:

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused submits that the respondent/complainant has been registered a case against the petitioner/accused for an alleged offence under section 331(3), 305 of BNS and remanded by this Hon'ble Court on 14.03.2026. The date of FIR is 22.01.2026, date of occurrence is 22.01.2026. Further submits that the petitioner/accused is innocent with regard to the alleged offence and he is no way connected with the alleged commission of offence. Further submits that he is ready to offer sufficient sureties for his appearance before this Hon'ble Court. Further submits that the petitioner/accused will not obliterate the course of investigation and neither tamper the witness nor abscond. Hence, it is prayed that to enlarge the petitioner/accused on bail.

3. Gist of the reply filed by the respondent is as follows:

The learned Assistant Public Prosecutor submits that the case is in the stage of investigation. The alleged offence is serious in nature. Against this accused previous case is pending. Further submitted if the petitioner/accused is released on bail he may be abscond and to commit the same kind of offence tamper the evidences and likely to flee to another district, it is to be difficult for the respondent police to secure him. Hence, the prosecution side strongly objects to release him on bail.

4. Point for consideration:

Whether the accused are entitled to be released on bail or not?

5. Answer to the point:

The submissions were heard. Records perused.

It is seen that Petitioner/Accused is arrested and remanded on 14.03.2026, that the petitioner is in judicial custody as for the past 19 days. Petitioner contended that Accused is ready to produce sureties. Some properties were recovered which would be stolen property of this case. There is nothing stated by the respondent regarding requiring of any custodial interrogation.

6. Upon duly considering the facts and circumstances, submissions of both sides on due perusal of records, some properties were recovered and if this petition is allowed, it will cause no pre-judice to the investigation, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner/accused on bail with the following conditions:

- i) The petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for the same amount.
- ii) The petitioner shall appear before the respondent police station everyday at 10.00 A.M until further orders.
- iii) The petitioner shall co-operate with the investigation and duly appear.
- iv) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement or threat to any person acquainted with the facts of the case from disclosing such facts as to the court or tamper with evidence.
- v) In the event of any change in his residential address, the petitioner/accused shall furnish his residential address and contact number before this Court.

Accordingly, this petition is allowed on conditions as stated supra.

Dictated to the Steno Typist and typed by her and it is corrected by me and Pronounced by me in the open court on the 02nd day of April, 2026.
