

Witness no.2 for Applicant
evidence on oath

Name : Dr. Naresh Khanna

Age : 69 years

Occupation : Orthopedic surgeon

Residence : Andheri (West)

Examination in chief by Adv. N.H. Husain for Applicant

1. On dtd. 20.04.2023 I have examined applicant Shri. Ashok Kumar S/o Anil Kumar, Age – 21 years for assessment of disability in connection with a accident while on work on dtd. 23.11.2017 he was treated at Kevalya Hospital from dtd. 23.11.2017, as indoor patient treatment after that Hospital papers perused that Fracture Care Centre and Khasariya Hospital for further treatment and following injuries noted.

I. Blunt injury left ankle and left foot

II. Compound injury with wound in left foot

III. Open tendon injury in left foot

IV. Tarsal bones exposed.

V. Compound fracture left Calcaneum with Degloving wound the treatment was given debridement with posterior plaster slab.

2. I examined the patient and clinically radiologically and noted six disability and mentioned in the certificate. Patient will required physiotherapy and observation.

3. Accordingly, I have assessed the disability as 62 % partial permanent disability and issued the certificate it bears my signature no photo and signature of the applicant for identification contents are true and correct.

I have shown disability certificate it is true and correct. It is true to say that this is physically affected disability certificate. Disability certificate at Exh.U-19.

Ex-parte for opposite party no.1.

Cross examination by adv. Deepa Kulkarni for Opposite party no. 2

4. It is true to say that, I have never treated the applicant. It is not true to say that I have prepared the certificate as per earlier medical papers. It is true to say that, I do not maintained treated clinical notes, as well as any record for the disability certificate. It is true to say that disability given only limited part. Degloving injury will not recover completely but fracture Calcaneum was consolidated examined the patient. It is not true to say that the partial disability will reduced. It is not true to say that I have given certificate mentioned in higher the disability for getting the huge compensation to the applicant. It is true to say that I had given disability certificate April 2023 thereafter I have not seen applicant. It is not true to say that the contents are in my affidavit as well as in disability certificate are false. It is not true to say that I am deposing false.

Cross examination completed.

Re examination nil.

Sd/-

(V.O. Patil)

Commissioner under Employees
Compensation Act & Judge,
Fifth Labour Court, Mumbai.

Date : 31/08/2023

Kpm/-