Cr.No.26/2026

..... Respondent/Complainant

This petition came up before me for final hearing on this day in the presence of Thiru.M.Muthukrishnan, Advocate for the petitioners/accused and the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor for the respondent and upon hearing the arguments of both sides, this court delivers the following:-

ORDER

1. This petition has been filed under section 478 of BNSS to enlarge the petitioners/accused on bail for the alleged commission of offence under section 305(a), 331(3) BNS to enlarge the petitioners/accused on bail.
2. Notice issued to respondent, reply received and heard both side argument.
3. The prosecution vehemently objected to enlarge the petitioners/accused on bail stating that, this case is under investigation. The petitioner/accused will abscond to other district or state. If the petitioner/accused is enlarged on bail the petitioners/accused will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation. Hence, he pray for dismissal of this petition.

4. The Learned counsel for the petitioners/accused submitted that the petitioners/accused has not committed any offence. The police registered a false case against the petitioners/accused. The petitioners/accused is ready and willing to abide by the condition, if any imposed by this court. The petitioners/accused is remanded to Judicial custody on 12/03/2026 and he is in custody for the past 12 days. They prayed to enlarge the petitioners on bail.
5. Considering the fact and circumstances of this case the period of incarceration being under gone by the accused and taking note of the submission made by the counsel of the petitioners/accused. Custodial interrogation is no more necessary in this case. This court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners/accused on conditions that the petitioners/accused should appear and sign before this respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M until further orders.
6. In the result, the petitioners/accused is enlarged on bail that he has to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- along with two sureties for a like sum each.
7. The petitioners/accused shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
8. The petitioners/accused shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

Pronounced by me in the open court, on 23rd day of March 2026.

Judicial Magistrate No.II,
Usilampatti.
