1. Nature of Prosecution Case:-

This is a case U/s 294(b), 452,323, 324,427, 506(ii) of IPC. The brief case of the prosecution as set out in the final report U/s 173(2) Cr.PC is as follows: That on 24/11/2016 at about 23:00 hours within the limits of Uthappanaickanur P.S, when the LW1 was at his home, all the three accused came there and trespassed into the house of LW1 and abused the LW1 in filthy language and the accused A1 attacked the LW1 with iron rod and the accused A2 attacked the LW1 by kicking him in the abdomen and the accused A3 has damaged the house doors and caused injuries to the LW1 and all the accused life threatening to him and thereby all the accused A1 to A3 committed an offense U/s 294(b), 452,323, 324,427, 506(ii) of IPC. Hence, the accused is charged.

2. Plea of the Accused:-

On receipt of the final report, this court has taken cognizance of the offence U/s 294(b), 452,323, 324,427, 506(ii) of IPC against all the accused. Thereafter summon was issued to the accused. On appearance of the accused, copies of the final report, statements and documents were furnished to the accused. Thereafter charges framed for the offences U/s 294(b), 452,323, 324,427, 506(ii) of IPC against A1 to A3 and was read and explained to the accused. The accused pleaded not guilty and claims to be tried.

The Evidence

The Prosecution Version

3. The prosecution has examined PW.1 to PW.3 and marked Exp-P1 to Exp-P4 on their side. The prosecution has dispensed with the examination of LW3 to LW8 and examined additional witness as PW3.

4. The PW.1 is namely Ayyar, who is the defacto complainant in this case and he has deposed that he has entered into compromise with the Accused and he has given complaint against them with exaggerated facts. The said complaint is marked as Exp.P1. The police did examined him.

The PW1 was declared hostile and cross examined by the prosecution side.

5. The PW.2 is namely Irulayee, who is the projected eye witness in this case and she has deposed that the PW1 has entered into compromise with the Accused and the PW1 has given complaint against them with exaggerated facts. The police did examined her.

The PW2 was declared hostile and cross examined by the prosecution side.

6. The PW.3 is namely Thavaraja, who is the Additional witness examined by the prosecution and he has deposed by perusing the records about the registration of F.I.R, investigation done by the then investigation officer and filing of the final report by him. And he deposed that the then investigation officer after examining the witness, recorded their statements and after the completion of the investigation, filed the final report. The said F.I.R is marked as Exp.P2. The said observation Mahazar and Rough Sketch is marked as Exp-P3 and Exp.P4.

Questioning under section 313 of Crpc.

7. When the accused was questioned U/s.313 Cr. P. C pertaining to the incriminating evidence adduced against him, the accused denied the same as false. On the side of accused, no oral or documentary evidence was adduced.

The point for determination:

8. The point for determination is Whether the prosecution has proved the charges against the accused beyond reasonable doubt?

Analysis of evidence

9. Though the prosecution in its list of witnesses has projected many witnesses on their side but have examined only three witnesses.

10. The charge against the accused is That on 24/11/2016 at about 23:00 hours within the limits of Uthappanaickanur P.S, when the LW1 was at his home, all the three accused came there and trespassed into the house of LW1 and abused the LW1 in filthy language and the accused A1 attacked the LW1 with iron rod and the accused A2 attacked the LW1 by kicking him in the abdomen and the accused A3 has damaged the house doors and caused injuries to the LW1 and all the accused life threatening to him and thereby all the accused A1 to A3 committed an offense U/s 294(b), 452, 323, 324, 427, 506(ii) of IPC. .

11. It is one of the defence of the accused that the accused were not the person, who involved in the said occurrence and that the prosecution has not proved the same. The defence has denied all the allegations levelled against the accused. While the defence has not adduced any evidence in this regard, it has relied on the cross-examination of the prosecution witnesses to demolish their credibility.

12. The complainant PW.1, the alleged victim has deposed in his chief examination that he has entered into compromise with the accused and has given complaint against the accused with exaggerated facts.

13. The PW2 projected eye witness also deposed that the PW1 has entered into compromise with the accused and has given complaint against the accused with exaggerated facts. Both the PW1 and PW2 has not whispered about anything in favour of the prosecution case and turned hostile to the prosecution.

14. It is a settled principle that the testimony of a hostile witness need not be rejected entirely; however, only the reliable portion corroborated by other evidence may be accepted. In the present case, no part of PW1 and PW2 evidence supports the prosecution or connects the accused with the alleged crime.

15. The PW3 is the Additional witness in this case and he has deposed only by perusing the records about the registration of FIR, the investigation process and the filing of the final report. PW3 admittedly has no personal knowledge about the occurrence. His testimony is formal and limited to procedural aspects. Law is well settled that evidence relating merely to investigation cannot substitute substantive evidence proving commission of offence. And there is no corroboration to the testimony of PW3. No other witness was examined by the prosecution to prove the guilt of the accused. A conviction cannot be founded solely upon such formal testimony when material witnesses do not support the case. In these circumstances it can be safely concluded that the prosecution had failed to prove the case against the accused beyond reasonable doubt.

16. The basic foundation of criminal law/ responsibility is that ‘a person accused of an offence is presumed to be innocent till the guilt alleged as against him is proved beyond all reasonable doubts’.

17. As a necessary corollary, suspicion, however, strong or probable, may not take the place of legal proof and when graver the charge, greater should be the standard of proof. The distance between ‘may be true’ and ‘must be true’ is too long.

18. For the reasons afore recorded, this Court comes to the conclusion that the prosecution has failed to adduce clear, cogent and sufficient evidence to prove the guilt of the accused in this case, beyond all reasonable doubts. And in the absence of thereof, the Court cannot resort to conjectures, assumptions and probabilities to convict the accused and it also renders it unsafe to rely solely on the testimony of PW3 to convict the accused.

19. In the above circumstances this court comes to conclusion that the accused A1 to A3 found not guilty for the offences U/s 294(b),452,323,324, 427,506(ii) of IPC.

20. In the result the accused A1 to A3 found not guilty for the offences U/s 294(b), 452,323, 324,427, 506(ii) of IPC and Acquitted in exercising of powers under Section 248 (1) of the Cr.P.C and the accused are set at Liberty. The bail bond executed by the accused shall remain in force for the period of six months from today under section 437-A Cr. P. C.

21. There are no properties in this case for orders.
