ORDER

1. This application u/s.12 of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act has been filed by the aggrieved petitioner. The respondents are her husband, mother-in-law, sister-in-law and sister-in-law's husband. The petitioner has sought various reliefs such as protection order, residence order, monetary relief and compensation. This case has reached the order stage. But, the notice to R1 was not actually served. In this connection this court had sought for clarification from the petitioner and posted the case for the same. But, the petitioner chose not to clarify the issue and remains continuously absent for the past 10 hearings. The petitioner lastly appeared on 09.01.2026 and thereafter she did not turn up before this court and she was not represented as well. Today as well the petitioner has not turned up before this court and failed to contest this case.

2. Considering the said facts and circumstances, non appearance of the petitioner, failure on her part to contest this case, this Court deems it fit to dismiss the application on hand for default of the petitioner with a cost of Rs.2000/- payable to the District Mediation Centre, Mayiladuthurai for wasting the precious time of this Court.

Dictated to Typist, typed by him, corrected and pronounced by me in the open court on this 09th day of March 2026.
