1. This is a cheque bouncing case filed by the complainant u/s 138 of N.I Act r/w Sec. 200 of CrPC. In this case summon was not directly served to the accused. Only paper publication was effected and it was taken as sufficient service. Due to non-appearance of the accused even after the paper publication, a bailable warrant was ordered against him on 31.08.2023 and it is still pending. The accused is actually a resident of Coimbatore District. The complainant was directed to pay process for issuance of warrant to Palladam police station multiple times. But, the complainant chose not to pay the requisite fees. Also the complainant has been very irregular in attending the court hearings for more than 1 year he remains absent and he was not at all regularly represented. Today also the complainant is absent and not represented.

2. Considering the said facts and the circumstances of this case, this Court deems it fit to exercise its power u/s 256 CrPC. Accordingly, this complaint is dismissed for non-appearance of the complainant. The accused is hereby acquitted and set at liberty. No property is involved in this case.
