

MACT 4806/2024

VIKAS

versus

SANJAY

06.08.2026

Present: Mr. Rajni Kant, Ld. counsel for the petitioner.
Respondents no. 1 and 2 are yet unserved.
Sh. Pramod Sah, Ld. counsel for the respondent no. 3 insurance company joined through VC.

Copy of the disability certificate has been supplied to the Ld. counsel for the petitioner.

Steps for publication qua respondents no. 1 and 2 are not taken. Be taken within a week from today else the interest of the petitioner shall stand stopped on the next date of hearing.

Ld. counsel for the petitioner submits that he shall be filing the affidavit of the employer regarding the address of the petitioner during the course of the day. Copy of the same be supplied to Ld. counsel for the insurance company.

In these circumstances renotify for consideration on the application of the respondent no. 3 insurance company seeking dismissal of the claim petition on the point of jurisdiction under section 166(3) MV Act along with the connected matter bearing MACT no. 4805/2024 on 15.12.2026.

(ANJANI MAHAJAN)
Presiding Officer, MACT, SD,
New Delhi/06.08.2026