

I.A.No.14/2024
in
O.S.No.6/2018

D.D.19.12.2024:

Order Pronounced.

This application is filed to receive the documents on the side of the petitioner/4th defendant.

2. According to the petitioner, these documents were omitted to be filed at the time of filing of the written statement and only now she has shown the documents to her Counsel and he advised that these documents ought to be filed.

3. The respondent filed counter disputing the genuineness of the documents filed by the petitioner/4th defendant.

4. This application is only to receive the documents and the marking of the documents is different from receiving the documents and the respondent could very well object to marking of the documents at the time when it was presented for marking of the documents before the Court at the time of taking evidence. Therefore, shutting the petitioner/4th defendant from even producing the documents is causing injustice to her. Therefore, this Court is of the considered view that this application can be allowed.

4. In the result, this petition is allowed. No cost.

Principal District Judge,
Perambalur.
